LANSING, MI, October 30, 2001 – Oakland County Circuit Judge Rae Lee Chabot has been appointed to the State Board of Law Examiners by Gov. John Engler.

Judge Chabot replaces Southfield attorney C. Robert Wartell, who resigned from the Board of Law Examiners due to ill health in September 2001. He passed away on September 24.

Before being appointed to the Oakland County Circuit Court in January 2001, Judge Chabot was a partner and shareholder in the Detroit law firm of Plunkett & Cooney. She has served as a member of the Michigan Civil Service Commission and the Secchia Commission, which studied state government and made suggestions for practical reforms. She is a director of the Oakland County Bar Association and a hearing panelist for the Attorney Discipline Board.

Judge Chabot received her law degree from Detroit College of Law in 1977 and her undergraduate degree from the University of Michigan in 1971.

The Board of Law Examiners has charge of the investigation and examination of all persons who initially apply for admission to the State Bar of Michigan.
